As per the mail received from PCI, Rathinam College of Pharmacy successfully organized a Webinar and Guest Lecture focusing on Current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP) and their significance in the pharmaceutical industry.

The Webinar on "Current Good Manufacturing Practice: Building a Career in Pharma Compliance" was conducted on 09th October 2025. The session was led by Ms. Aysha Thasneem V. M, Training Expert in Pharmaceutical Industry Curriculum, Tulips, Coimbatore. Ms. Aysha delivered an insightful presentation emphasizing the fundamentals and importance of cGMP in ensuring the quality, safety, and efficacy of pharmaceutical products. She highlighted the growing significance of pharma compliance in the global healthcare industry and outlined various career opportunities available for aspiring professionals in this domain.

Following this, a Guest Lecture on "Current Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) Day: GMP Guidelines and Compliance in Pharma Industry" was held on 11th October 2025. The session was delivered by Mr. Gopinath Chandran, Process Manager at Primas Bioscience Private Limited, Perundurai. Mr. Gopinath shared his extensive industry experience and deep knowledge of pharmaceutical manufacturing processes, emphasizing the importance of adhering to GMP guidelines to maintain product quality, safety, and regulatory compliance. His session was highly informative and practical, bridging the gap between academic knowledge and industrial applications.

Both the webinar and guest lecture were immensely beneficial for the participants, providing valuable insights into the principles and applications of cGMP. The events helped students understand the critical role of compliance in pharmaceutical manufacturing and inspired them to consider career opportunities in pharma compliance and quality assurance.
