Rathinam College of Pharmacy successfully organized an E-Consortium training and awareness program in association with The Tamil Nadu Dr. MGR Medical University, Chennai. The program aimed to educate and empower students and faculty members about the benefits, usage, and scope of the E-Consortium platform to facilitate academic research and knowledge sharing. Mr. B Kamal Babu, Product Manager, Bentham Science Publishers an expert in digital resource management and a resource person from Tamil Nadu Dr. MGR Medical University, Chennai, conducted the session. He provided in-depth knowledge and practical demonstrations on the usage of the E-Consortium portal.

The enthusiastic participation reflected the keen interest in enhancing research capabilities. This program enhanced the participants' awareness and skills in using the E-Consortium platform, thereby promoting a research-oriented academic environment. It empowered the students and faculty to efficiently utilize digital resources for their academic growth and research projects. The E-Consortium training/awareness program was a successful initiative towards promoting digital literacy and research competence among the pharmacy community. Rathinam College of Pharmacy remains committed to facilitating such educational programs to support academic excellence.
